

Art Decó

Roaring twentie's

- International design movement from 1925 until 1939, affecting the decorative arts
- Peaked in Europe during the Roaring Twenties and continued strongly in the United States through the 1930s.
- Art Deco was purely decorative
- Based on mathematical geometric shapes.

Decorative arts

Fountain at Rockefeller center

Rene Chambellan

Fountain of eternal life
Marshall Fredericks

Viernes santo
Santiago Martínez Delgado

Vida
Santiago Martínez
Delgado

Musician

Tamara de Lempicka

Lovers

Tamara de Lempicka

Sleeper

Tamara de Lempicka

Architecture

City Hall – Buffalo, N.Y.
William Van Allen

Chrysler Building – New York City –
William Van Allen

Golden Gate Bridge
William Van Allen

Monumento a la Revolución
Emile Bernard

Palacio de Bellas Artes
Adamo Boari