

Neoclassic

Enlightenment

1) Reason

- Truth and logical thinking

2) Nature

- What is natural is good and reasonable

3) Happiness

- Well being on Earth

4) Progress

- Humankind can improve

5) Liberty

- Thinking...

Introduction

- It flourished in Europe and North America from mid to end of 18th century
- They sought to replace the frivolity of the Rococo with a style logical and solemn
- It was the official art of the revolutions
- It has a deep moral sense.

Painting

- Centred in Rome
- More simple than Baroque
- Subjects inspired in mythology
- Solemn and austere theme and treatments, and archaeologically correct in details

Jacques-Louis David

- Supporter of the French Revolution
- He used grand manners in his early work
- He directed the Academy
- He produced numerous advertising exercises

Cupid y Psique
David

The Oath of the Horatii
Jacques-Louis David

Napoleon in
Saint Bernard
David

The Death of Socrates
Jacques Louis David

The death of Marat - David

- Responsive to clothing and the postures
- Lacked of spontaneity
- Too finished work
- Portraits
- Sought for perfectionism
- Portraits of women considered implying a sexual submissiveness
- He depicted nudes
- Influence of the exotic (harem)

Jean-Auguste-Dominique Ingres

Napoleon
Jean Auguste Dominique
Ingres

Napoleon in his Imperial throne
Ingres

Odalisque - Ingres

Grande Odalisque
Ingres

Turkish bath
Ingres

The Declaration of Independence
John Trumbull

Architecture

Del Prado Museum
Juan de Villanueva

The Alcalá Gate
Francesco Sabatini.

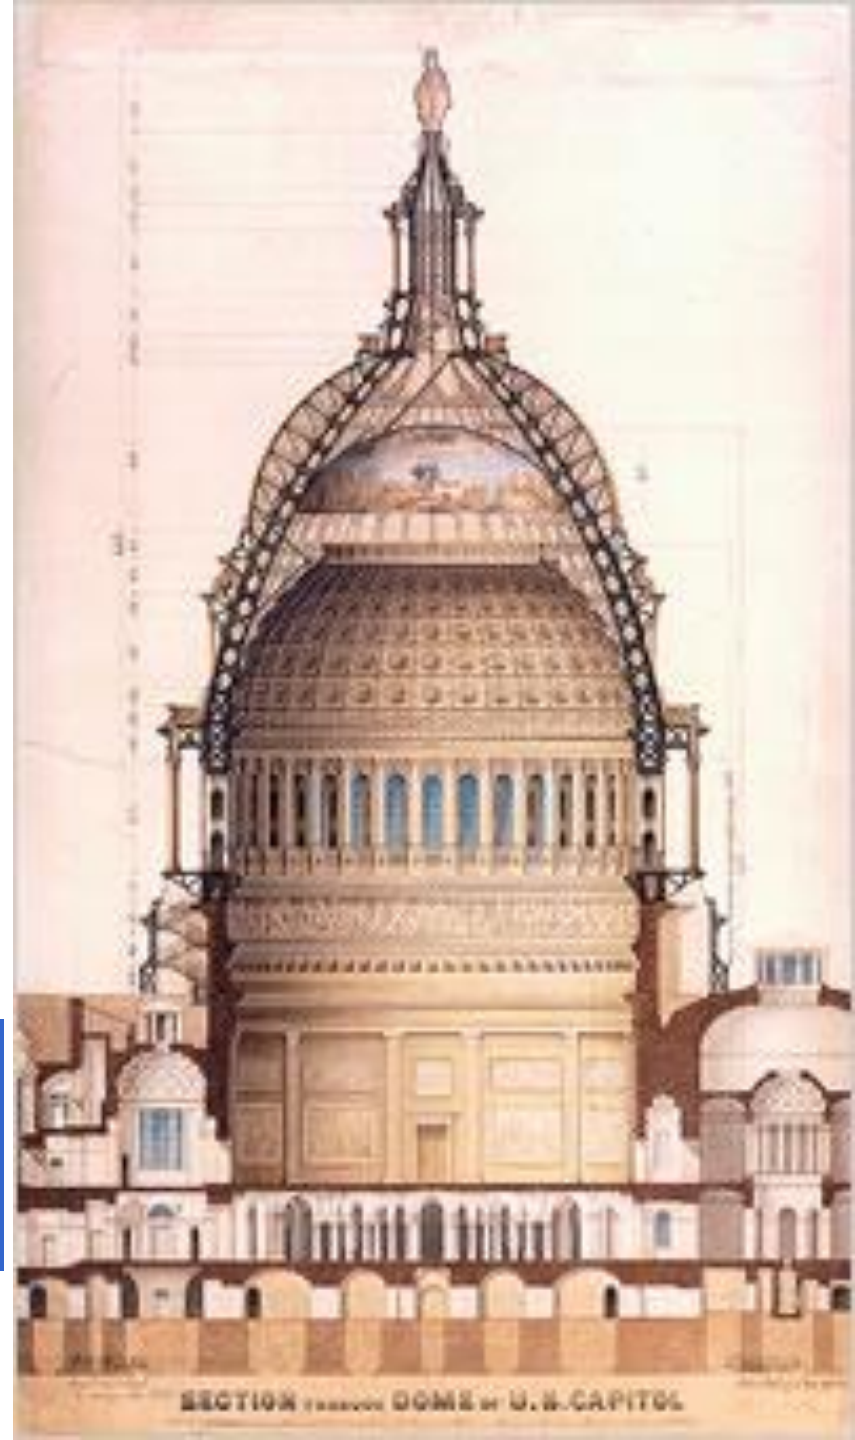

Brandembourgh Door
Carl Gotthard

US Capitol
William Thornton

Capitol

Arc de Triomphe
Jean François Thérèse Chalgrin

Cathedral Downtown
Mexico City
Manuel Tolsá

Sculpture

Cupid and Psyche
Antonio Canova

The Three Graces
Antonio Canova

Maria Paolina Borghese as Venus
Antonio Canova

Venus
Bertel Thorwaldsen

Ganimedes and the Eagle
Bertel Thorwaldsen

Three graces
Bertel Thorwaldsen

Jason
Bertel Thorwaldsen

